1974 O.R. Graduation

A NEW BEGINNING

The class of 1974 graduated under a bright sign from the Zodiac as a brilliant sun warmed graduates and guests at the Old Rochester athletic field. Acting principal David S. Hagen introduced "mystery guest" Dr. Frank P. Gifune who returned at the students' request to give the charge to the graduates. Dr. Gifune told the students that they emerge from that moment as adults and must assume full responsibility for all the effect of our political and social life, the bad as well as the good. He urged that they participate fully in the life of their communities to let their influence be felt. He said that the strongest force in the life of anyone is the struggle to excel, to use one's talents and knowledge to the fullest advantage. He warned, however, that one must learn from failure the limit of that ability and never let failure mean defeat, the end of the road. "He who dies trying," he said, "died winning."

Dr. Gifune recalled his years as principal which he said were extremely rich years in his professional life. He mentioned that next year he would see his daughter graduate from the high school and

She read a text prepared by the three highest ranking students of the class of 1974. The theme of the address was the individual and his relationship to the whole community. She said the moral tone of a society depends upon the moral example of the individual. She said that even though the men involved in Watergate might be absolved on criminal charges their moral guilt is still clear. She urged her fellow classmates to speak out for their convictions, to join committees, to participate fully in the community and to follow their

Dr. Joseph Kunces, superintendent of schools, gave the address of welcome and during this address he recalled that John Hagen, brother of acting principal David Hagen, had been a central force in the building of the Regional educational facility. He asked that a moment of silence be observed for Mr. Hagen who died suddenly this past week.

The invocation was given by the Reverend Edward F. White of the First Congregational Church, Rochester. The Reverend David H. Graham of the Marion Congregational Church gave the benediction. David S. Hagen, acting principal, presented the graduating class and assisted Mrs. Francis S. Lynch, chairman of the Old Rochester Regional School Committee, in the presentation of the diplomas. Mr. Hagen also announced the prizes and scholarships.

Mrs. Lynch read to the graduates a message from President Nixon.

The band, under the baton of Gary Thomas, played a medley from "The Sting" as well as traditional graduation music.

The academic awards, medals to Seniors with the highest academic standing in each discipline, were made to the following: Art,

PAINTINGS ON EXHIBIT

The Jonathan Bourne Public Library is currently showing the paintings of Mrs. Gertrude C. Sutherland of North Road, Harbor Beach, Mattapoisett.

Mrs. Sutherland began painting as a hobby while living in Newton, Mass. and first studied oils with Mr. Sherwood Blodgett. For two years she took lessons in sketching and sculptoring at Brattle Hall in Cambridge, Mass.

She was a member of the Newton Art Association and exhibited in Newton. Displays of her work have been seen also in Concourse Gallery at State Street Bank and Trust Co. of Boston.

Since moving to Mattapoisett, she has continued her studies in Acrylics and Watercolor with many local artists and is a member of the Bourne-Wareham Art Association and the Cape Cod Art Association of Barnstable.

The public is welcome to view the work of Mrs. Sutherland at the main library during the entire month of June.

REPLY ON INTOWN TREATMENT OF SEWAGE

Selectmen wrote May 23rd to inquire of the Water Resources Commission about the probability of receiving State and Federal funds for a small intown sewage treatment plant as an alternate to the tie-in with Fairhaven's treatment plant. The town voted $3,000. for a feasibility study of such a plant at the annual town meeting. The following reply was received June 3, 1974 from Mr.

Thomas C. McMahon, Director Water Resources Commission:

Gentlemen:

This is in reply to your letter of May 23, 1974 advising us that the town had recently appropriated $3,000. for a feasibility study and preliminary plans of a sewage collection and treatment facility to be located in the Town as an alternate to the previously approved plan involving regionalization with the Town of Fairhaven.

The Division has no objection to your proposed feasibility study for an alternate plan.

For your information, the standards for ground water disposal are such that the effluent discharged into the ground will not interfere with the use of the ground water in the area for drinking water purposes. This is a very difficult standard to meet.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY ANNUAL MEETING

Anthropologist John Dietz will present an illustrated program on the archeology and architecture of Plimouth Plantation at the June 20th annual meeting of the Matta-poisett Historical Society at the Congregational Church Parish Hall at 8 P.M.

An authority on the American Indian, Dr.
Dietz has led archeological expeditions for the Smithsonian Institute in South Dakota, the University of California in California as well as in New England. He received his Ph.D in archeology from Harvard University and has been associated with Plimoth Plantation for approximately 15 years.

George Avila, president of the Mattapoisett Historical Society, makes special note of the change in location for the meeting at the church parish hall instead of the Society's museum, although the museum will be open at 6:30 P.M. that evening for visitors prior to the meeting up the street. Members and guests most cordially are invited. Refreshments will be served following Dr. Dietz' presentation.

Tri-County Scholarships

The awarding of a total of $1,600. in music scholarships -- the largest amount ever given in a single year by the Tri-County Music Association -- was announced at the organization's POPS concert Saturday night in Marion at Tabor Academy's filled-to-overflowing Hoyt Hall.

The scholarship recipients are: Deborah Nottage of Old Rochester Regional High School, scheduled to enter Berklee School of Music, Boston in the fall; Frederick S. Cabral of Bishop Stang High School, who will enter Lowell State College; Kenneth Wilbur, entering his senior year at Lowell State; Charles Hutchings, entering his sophomore year at Hartt College of Music, Connecticut; and Susan Spaulding, a second-year student at the University of Maine. All are music majors.

The announcements were made by Philip F. Danforth, Jr. of New Bedford, a member of the Association's Board of Directors and chairman of the scholarship committee.

From their greeting at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Thackeray of Marion until their exit to the tempo of "The Stars and Stripes Forever," the POPS patrons were served by more than usherettes, waiters, lemonade girls and bar tenders, and people in the area who volunteered their services.

Harpsichord Concert

AREA GETS AN UNUSUAL MUSICAL TREAT

The Creative Arts Council on the Fairhaven Unitarian Memorial Church is happy to present Mr. Ray Ellerman, a distinguished artist who will perform on a concert grand harpsichord this Saturday evening, June 15th, at 7:00 P.M.

Mr. Ellerman has performed as soloist with the St. Louis String Ensemble and several times with the Erie Philharmonic Orchestra. He has written a number of compositions for Harpsichord and Organ. He holds a Master's Degree in Music and quite recently, with the collaboration of his wife, he completed a major work for Electronic Tape and Harpsichord. It premiered in Erie, Penn., where it was performed in the Unitarian Chamber Music Series and received fine reviews. Mrs. Ellerman is a church music director in Harrisonburg, Virginia, their home.

By a happy coincidence, the availability of Mr. Ellerman's performance taking place at this time is due to the fact he is presently in the area as the chosen adjudicator for this year's Piano Auditions held each June and open here only to pupils of area members of the National Guild of Piano Teachers.

Mr. Ellerman will be playing on his own Harpsichord as arrangements were made to transport the instrument from Virginia. This recital is being sponsored by the Southeastern Chapter of the Massachusetts Music Teachers' Association as well as by the area members of the National Guild of Piano Teachers.

A reception for Mr. Ellerman will take place following the conclusion of the program and refreshments will be served. Miss Mildred J. Keefe, chairman of the Creative Arts Council, announces that the event is open to the public and that it will take place at the Parish

HELPFUL ADVICE

Now hear this: you have to develop an "ear" for your car's operating efficiency.

Here are three common car ailments and the noises that indicate them:

1. A sputtering or roaring sound under the midsection of the car. This usually means a muffler, exhaust or tail pipe is rusted through or damaged in some way. If defective, the part should be replaced without delay, so that poisonous fumes cannot enter the interior of the car.

2. Tapping sound in the engine. Possibility of a valve sticking, or insufficient oil in the engine. Have the engine oil level checked and put in a can of additive if necessary.

3. Loud squeal when brakes are applied. Signal that brake linings may be badly worn or invaded by dust or oil. Brake linings should be checked immediately.

For helpful advice on safe driving and maintenance of your car, write to Gulf Oil Company — U.S., P.O. Box 1519-TG, Houston, Texas 77001, for your free copy of the booklet, "Straight Talk for the Woman Driver."
